In this workshop three psychoanalysts, one from Buenos Aires, Argentina, and two from Texas, will talk about the clinical application of the concept of projective identification and will compare the regional similarities and differences in the use of the concept. Dr. Ungar will present a paper, "Projective Identification in Our Clinical Work Nowadays", and Dr. Gabbard and Dr. Adler will discuss the paper, engaging in a dialogue with one another and with the audience.

Dr. Virginia Ungar is a Training Analyst in the Buenos Aires Psychoanalytical Association and has more than 28 years experience in psychoanalysis. She lectures and consults on psychoanalysis in North and South America and Europe. She is the author of numerous published papers and book chapters.

Dr. Glen Gabbard is Brown Foundation Chair of Psychoanalysis and Professor of Psychiatry at Baylor College of Medicine. He is also a Training and Supervising Analyst at the Houston-Galveston Psychoanalytic Institute. He was Joint Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Psychoanalysis from 2001-2007 and is the author or editor of 23 books on topics related to psychoanalysis and psychiatry.

Dr. Marianna Adler is a psychoanalyst in private practice in Austin, Texas, and is a member of the faculty of the Houston-Galveston Psychoanalytic Institute. She is active in the Division of Psychoanalysis (39) of the American Psychological Association, and she has been a presenter for the Houston-Galveston Psychoanalytic Society.

Upon completion, participants will be able to:

1. Define projective identification.
2. Discuss its usefulness clinically as a psychoanalytical concept.
3. Describe differences in the views of the analysts in North and South America regarding projective identification.

Views of Projective Identification: A Psychoanalytical Discussion is supported by the International Psychoanalytical Association.
